Search engine optimisation

Why search engines matter?

Search engine rankings are a vital component of an Internet presence: More than three quarters of hits on Internet home pages are directed there via a search engine; and half of consumers research online prior to making purchases. But many of the world's largest businesses are failing to take advantage of this growing channel for acquiring customers. So you need to ask yourself the question can users find you?

5.1. META Keywords

(Keywords that people will type in on a directory search to find your business)
Maximum 10 Key words

5.2. META Description

(Title or Description of Business for Search Purposes)
Maximum 30 words

5.2. Additional SEO
